Special Issue: Trophic Ecology
of the Coccinellidae

Volume 51, Issue 2, November 2009

CONTENTS

- 199 Assessing the trophic ecology of the Coccinellidae: Their roles as predators and as prey
Donald C. Weber, Jonathan G. Lundgren
- 215 The evolution of food preferences in Coccinellidae
José Adriano Giorgi, Natalia J. Vandenberg, Joseph V. McHugh, Juanita A. Forrester, S. Adam Ślipiński, Kelly B. Miller, Lori R. Shapiro, Michael F. Whiting
- 232 Scale insects, mealybugs, whiteflies and psyllids (Hemiptera, Sternorrhyncha) as prey of ladybirds
Ivo Hodek, Alois Honěk
- 244 Aphidophagy by Coccinellidae: Application of biological control in agroecosystems
John J. Obrycki, James D. Harwood, Timothy J. Kring, Robert J. O'Neil
- 255 Lady beetles as predators of insects other than Hemiptera
Edward W. Evans
- 268 Coccinellidae as predators of mites: Stethorini in biological control
David J. Biddinger, Donald C. Weber, Larry A. Hull
- 284 Mycophagy in Coccinellidae: Review and synthesis
Andrew M. Sutherland, Michael P. Parrella
- 294 Nutritional aspects of non-prey foods in the life histories of predaceous Coccinellidae
Jonathan G. Lundgren
- 306 Natural enemies of the Coccinellidae: Parasites, pathogens, and parasitoids
E.W. Riddick, T.E. Cottrell, K.A. Kidd
- 313 Lady beetle oviposition behavior in response to the trophic environment
Michael P. Seagraves
- 323 Coccinellids in diverse communities: Which niche fits?
William E. Snyder
