

EuFMD Modeling network

Aims to promote a better understanding of epidemiological and economic models to inform contingency planning, and to improve dialog between model developers and users.

Who is the network for?

Model developers/users, and contingency planners interested in using model outputs.

Activities and resources:

- Webinar series (recordings available)
- Model inventory (description of available models)
- Discussion forum

For more information/to join:

<https://eufmdlearning.works/> or eufmd-training@fao.org

